Sunday School	Leader	Location	Time	Description
Bible Explorers	Paul Lane	Chapel	9:30 a.m.	The Bible is read aloud in fellowship and its meaning shared with each other. Various translations are sometimes read, and videos, Bible dictionaries, maps and commentaries are also used to support our discussion. The class is currently studying the book of Proverbs.
Carpenter's Class	Rotates among the class leaders	CEC Building, Rm. 4	9:30 a.m.	The Carpenter's Class focuses on various books of the Bible. The class studies together, encourages one another, eats together, and serves together.
Out of the Box Bible Talk	Rotates among the class leaders	Friendship Hall	11:00 a.m.	This class uses an interactive discussion style to explore the New Testament. They are currently discussing the scripture from the weekly sermon in greater depth in addition to studying the Gospel of Mark. Personal Bibles are strongly encouraged.
Weekly Bible studies	Leader	Location	Time	Description
Pastor's Bible study	Gary Upleger	Chapel	Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.	Life is messy. If it isn't a mess of our own creation, it is a mess left for us (put upon us) by others. We all have some mess in our lives. The bottom line, and the message of the season of Lent, is that Jesus came to help us in the mess that is our lives. He wants us to trust that His grace (through his life, death and resurrection) is able to help us in the midst of it all. In the end, the real point is not our mess, but His grace.
Martin Luther Bible Study	Paul Lane	Sanctuary Conf. Rm	Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m.	We are currently studying the Revelation of John from Martin Luther's German translation. We read the German Bible aloud and discuss its meaning and significance in English and German and study vocabulary, grammar, history, and theology. Some knowledge of the German language is helpful. A German language Bible is required.
Transforming Grace	Linda Criswell	Chapel	Tuesdays at 6:15 p.m.	The group is studying the Psalms both from a literary and a spiritual perspective, focusing on the elements of Hebrew poetry and imagery and how the thoughts apply to our lives.

Tuesday Night Sunday School	Carl Greene	Sanctuary Hall	Tuesdays at 7:00 pm	Our primary focus is Bible study. At other times we may research and study Biblically related topics. We enjoy our fellowship time and an annual service project.
